

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. Our state law has been very effective and has made it so that we are happy to answer our own telephone. We used to receive at least 10-15 calls per week, and now we rarely receive any. Thank you for your attention to this message.